

New Assistant At Bowling Green

Special to The Blade

BOWLING GREEN, O., March 4—Edward Schembechler, line coach at Presbyterian College, Clinton, S.C., has been named an assistant coach under new head man Doyt Perry at Bowling Green State University.

Schembechler played tackle at Barberton High School and Miami, O., University. He spent two years in service before taking the position at Presbyterian last fall.

Perry said just what Schembechler's exact job would be has not been determined yet. Perry added that one more assistant is to be named.
